

Wear and Care Instructions

All Phoenix Animal Solutions products are designed and manufactured to provide both comfort and durability. The proper use of this Phoenix Animal Solutions' product is essential to achieve the maximum therapeutic effect.

The proper use of this product includes the following:

- Please supervise your animal during the use of this product particularly during the initial introduction period of use.
- This product must be removed at least once a day and inspected for cleanliness and wear. You must also thoroughly inspect your animal at least once a day for any signs of irritation due to the use of this product and if found you must immediately discontinue use and contact either Phoenix Animal Solutions or your veterinary professional.
- If the product becomes soiled it should be washed in accordance with the care instructions below. Particular attention should be paid if this product is worn over an open wound.
- To provide maximum performance and longevity of the product it is recommended that the product be washed at least once every week. All hook and loop is manufactured by VelcroUSA and lasts for years of use. Hook and Loop fasteners should be fastened prior to machine washing.
- Hair Removal from Hook Fastener: Hair must be removed for continued successful attachment. Use a tool such as a dog's metal comb, a crochet hook or darning needle. Before placing in washing machine secure all hook and loop fasteners. Washing will not remove the hair.
- All products used to make the garments are man-made and therefore sensitive to high heat. Dryer temp should be on Delicate to avoid damage to all products used in the manufacture of the garments.
- Recommendation: Throw a dry very old towel (no lint) in with the garment to help absorb the moisture from the garments and shorten drying time.
- If the product shows excessive wear or is torn, chewed or otherwise modified, please discontinue use and contact Phoenix Animal Solutions to purchase a replacement.

Again thank you for this purchase and if you have any additional questions on the proper care and use of this product, please go to the Phoenix Animal Solutions website: www.phoenixanimalsolutions.com for additional information or contact information.

Return Policy

- Phoenix Animal Solutions products are custom medical products and we have a very strict return policy for the health and safety of all the animals for which we provide products. As a provider of custom medical products that are typically prescribed or recommended by veterinary professional, we do not accept returns.
- In cases where there is an established manufacturing defect, we will only replace or remake or repair the product, once it has been reviewed by Phoenix Animal Solutions.
- Although our products have a history of outstanding efficacy, there is not a 100% success rate. In the cases where one of our products does not result in the desired effect we are glad to work with any customer and their veterinary professionals to try and advise other solution options, including ones from other vendors, that may provide the desired result.
